Silver Booster Club Meeting Held

The Month of April ended, the school year for the Silver Booster Club. Rev. Elwood Rose was on hand to help us complete the year, which he so ably helped us begin last fall. We thank all of our mistakes who assisted us at meetings thru out the year.

Miss Summerman, our music teacher, showed the beautiful colored slides of pictures taken last summer during her tour of Europe. She told an interesting story along with them. Songs typical of the countries she visited were sang by the girls chorus.

The club decided in its discussion of what the future of the organization might be that it would retain the officers and committees intact and would wait until after school gets under way next fall before making any definite decisions concerning the club for another year. A joint committee made up of three members from the Ross P.T.A. appointed by their president, Mrs. Delbert Fowler and three members from the Silver Booster Club appointed by its president, Mrs. Carl Pickering, will plan the joint reception for the teachers and school personnel next Sept.

It was noted that a most prosperous and congenial year had been enjoyed by the club, thanks to the ability of people in the school district to work together.

One bit of unfinished business still goes on, namely the subscription selling for the Jamestown Journal. There are still a few collectors who have not yet turned in a report. Will you please get your collecting done and turn into Mrs. Willis Glass as soon as possible? Mr. Shupe has very generously consented to our conducting our "clean up" campaign next Sept. since house cleaning has precedent at the present. Only by having our parents take our local paper can we hope to reach them with our Booster Club notices and news. The Club receives one dollar for each new subscription and fifty cents for each renewal handed in to them. Mrs. Willis Glass, Mrs. Max Jenks, and Mrs. Clyde Toland are the committee who are working very hard on this campaign for the Silver Boosters. Won't you see them today?

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Helfner and family of Ada, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Jack LeVoeck from Pataskala, Mrs. Helen Helfner, Mr. and Mrs. Max Helfner and Joy, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Helfner and family, Sarah and Louise Skyles enjoyed a picnic dinner at Bryan State Park on Sunday.

Silver Booster Club Gives Awards

Mrs. Moorman's second grade was awarded the Panda Bear and Mrs. Lockwood's sixth grade was given the oil painting, as permanent property for having the best attendance at Silver Booster Club meetings thru out the year. All of the first two grades have had the Panda at least one time during the year. Mrs. Smith's second grade won it for the balance of the school year at the April meeting. Mrs. Cosgray and Mrs. Reese each had it for one month and shared it one month.

Mrs. Lockwood's sixth grade monopolized the picture for four of the seven months during the year and are the proud possessors of it, after the end of school on Mrs. Cum-ford's fourth grade captioned it at the April meeting and will have it until school is out. Mrs. Thuma's fourth grade and Miss Toland's third grade each enjoyed it for a month during the year. Another painting will be purchased from one of our local artists this fall to be used as an attendance award for the coming year. If the first and second grades still wish to have a Panda Bear it will be purchased for them. If they chose something else, that will be secured.

The Silver Boosters thank the teachers and students for helping get their parents and friends out for meetings the contest was most exciting thru out the year.

Logion Auxiliary Visits OSSO Home

The American Legion Auxiliary and their families went to Harrison Cottage B at the OS & SO Home Sunday afternoon with provision for a covered dish supper. The fourteen boys living in cottage B are sponsored by the local Auxiliary and are remembered on special days. All boys who had had birthdays since the first of the year received birthday gifts from the Ladies of the Auxiliary.

Enjoying the afternoon with the boys were Mrs. Ralph Gels, Mrs. Russell Eavers, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Haller, Mr. and Mrs. William Ewing, Mrs. Inez Merritt, Mrs. John Stanforth, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Stafford, Mrs. Lella Ellison, Mr. and Mrs. George McGoron, Mrs. Kenneth Ritenour and daughters and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Turner and children.

Sunday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Robinson were Mr. and Mrs. John Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. Myron Fudge and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Murry.

Silver Boosters Extend Thanks

The Silver Boosters wound up the school year with 265 members, a record breaker membership, even tho it was 5 short of its goal. The program committee not only planned programs which drew record breaking attendance to meetings but also added almost seventy four dollars to the treasury with its cake walk and minstrel show. The food committee under the direction of the Ways and Means Committee netted seventy one dollars with two candy sales and the Athletic banquet which is not aimed to make money but to pay expenses and honor the team. The Ways and Means Committee had its biggest year with a food sale, turkey raffle, Jack's Xylophone Band, Baby contest and the sale of brooms. By the way, Mrs. Frank Jones has about one dozen brooms in case some of you still like to have one.

Silvercreek School is richer by four Westinghouse Water Coolers, an additional oil painting, a panda bear, enough dishes, enabling the serving of a banquet of 200, without borrowing, and ten boys and girls having been given special art lessons. In all it totaled the cooperative earnings and expenditure of approximately eleven hundred dollars.

A great deal of pleasure was gained through the co-operation of each and every one of you during the school year. The Silver Boosters say "Many thanks to you all".

Men In Service

Army Pvt. Elmer P. Story, whose parents live in Jamestown, Ohio, recently spent a seven-day rest and recuperation leave in Hakata, Japan. Story, who arrived overseas last July, is normally stationed in Korea as a jeep driver with the 7th Engineer Field Maintenance Company. He entered the Army in February 1953, completed basic training at Camp Benning, Ala., and arrived overseas last July.

Ingenity and an eye for color have provided the 38th Infantry Regiment with an unusual motor office thanks to the efforts of Army Sergeant First Class Harry Rose or Xenia, Ohio.

Rose, the regiment's motor sergeant, has his office in a tent equipped and decorated with discarded equipment that he has accumulated.

A blue stairwell leads into a tent whose foundations go three feet into the ground. Over the doorway is an awning made of a piece of culvert casting, also painted blue.

A yellow tire placed inside a fence of white chain acts as the motor sergeant's emblem. Inside the tent, the pink silk foil usually found wrapped around the Army's truck heaters line the walls, acting not only as decoration but also as reflective sheeting that helps to keep Sergeant Rose warm.

The ingenious motor sergeant's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E.C. Rose, live in Xenia.

Dental Survey Sought At Jamestown

The State Department of Health has been requested by the local Health Department at Greene Memorial Hospital to send a dental trailer to Silvercreek school for a survey of school children there; it was announced today by Dr. Gordon E. Savage, county health commissioner.

The local department is interested in obtaining such a survey because of the presence of natural fluorides in Jamestown's water supply to the extent of one part per million, the concentration recommended for the prevention of dental decay. Dr. Savage continued.

A statistical outline of the results of this survey was given, which denoted that only 45 percent of 162 native-born children examined had experienced dental decay, roughly half of what officials would expect to find in non fluoride areas.

The survey also showed that the decayed, missing and filled rate for each youngster of the group of 162 was only 2.3 percent, a distinct advantage when compared to 8.0 decayed, missing and filled teeth found in communities with no fluoride in the water supply. The rate of the entire school, 617 pupils, was only 4.5 percent, Dr. Savage remarked.

In addition, he said, 91 of the pupils had no decay in their six-year molar teeth and only seven had experienced decay in their incisor teeth. Mottling of the enamel was found in 2 percent of the children examined. Dr. Savage reported. This mottling was of the mildest degree and in no way objectionable, he said.

Dr. Savage also remarked that it was interesting to note that of the 617 pupils examined only 76 percent had dental defects, a considerably lower percentage than found in communities with non-fluoridated water supplies, even though such water had not been used since birth.

Weather Prediction By Roy Fields

Roy Fields, whose habitation is in the Selma area, comes up with some bad news for gardeners; especially when the warm weather gave them the itch to get out and dig and plant things.

Roy says there will be some very bad weather for growing things in May, and he predicts, that stuff planted much before the first of June will be in for tough sledding.

Around the middle of May he says there will be weather that soft stuff like beans and tomatoes just can't take. Then from the 24th to the 28th, he looks for a freeze with the possibility of snow. "I hate to see folks plant a lot of beans and tomatoes and then lose them," he said.

Asked on what he based his prediction, Roy said, "Oh I watch things and when they come out a certain way, the weather will be like I said, just see if I don't hit it."

Well there you have it, and perhaps Roy knows what he is talking about.

ROVIN'

With Ralph Shupe

We have here in Greene County a banker . . . one Mr. Russell B. Stewart . . . who is a man of many abilities . . . capabilities . . . and functions. Banker Stewart is President of the Miami Deposit Bank which has its main office in Yellow Springs. Antioch College is a big customer. Under the guidance of Banker Stewart, the institution has expanded and it also has a branch in Cedarville.

Banker Stewart is an active member of the Board of Trustees . . . that revered . . . sacrosanct educational institution . . . Antioch College. Banker Stewart is also treasurer of Antioch College . . . that citadel of learning et cetera which has brought nation-wide renown to Yellow Springs and Greene County. (We wouldn't use the word "notoriety" with its connotations. Boy . . . we got in a lot of those six-bit Antioch College words quickly . . . didn't we?)

Now . . . Banker Stewart has been known to talk to newsmen. To one . . . for example . . . he talked "off the record." To another . . . he talked for the world to read. Banker Stewart has also been known to write letters. One he released to a newsmen. Others he hasn't released . . . yet. Both his press interviews and his letters have been . . . shall we say . . . a bit paradoxical of late . . . as they might put it in the Antioch vernacular. As we plain folks would say it: Banker Stewart has gotten his dates and signals mixed up somewhere.

Now . . . we're interested in nothing but the plain and painful facts . . . just the facts, sir . . . so we'd appreciate an early reply from Banker Russell B. Stewart to the following letter:

May 6, 1954

Dear Banker Stewart:

We have noted with much interest your recent press notices about "smears" and people "shooting off their mouths."

Now . . . Banker Stewart . . . since when is the truth a "smear" and since when is it improper for anyone to "shoot off his mouth" or to otherwise expose the truth about an undesirable and dangerous situation? Tell us . . . won't you? We'll print it.

And . . . Banker Stewart . . . you state that we were "15 years late." Aw . . . shucks . . . Mr. Banker! Why . . . didn't you know and haven't you heard that Antioch College had on its faculty an identified member of a Communist spy ring as late as 1948? When we studied arithmetic, that added up to much less than 15 years ago. And . . . that faculty member was on the Antioch College staff after his connection with the Canadian spy ring had been published in the press. Tell us . . . Banker Stewart . . . who appointed him . . . who kept him on and . . . why? We are sure that you figure the payments and interest on your loans with a much greater degree of accuracy than you are quoted as showing in your calculation of the chronology of Communist infiltration at Antioch College.

And who . . . Banker Stewart . . . was the member of the Antioch College Board of Trustees who . . . less than four years ago . . . submitted to the Antioch College Administrative Council a lengthy "recommendation" which listed at least five (5) groups of "security risks" at Antioch College . . . less than four years ago? If your version doesn't agree with ours . . . we'll print both of them.

We have more . . . much more information on the Antioch College situation . . . Banker Stewart . . . and . . . we'll get it into print if we have to rent a mimeograph machine!

We are about to reach the definite conclusion that you have made the mistake of playing a bad hand thru to a showdown. Poker players tell us that is never a good idea.

Just in case anyone connected with our Antioch College problem has forgotten . . . we point out that Alger Hiss went to the pen for perjury.

Congressional committees may or may not investigate educational institutions but . . . the light of truth will be thrown still further on Antioch College.

Your reply . . . Banker Stewart . . . is awaited with great interest.

Yours truly,
THE EDITOR

With a Buckeye In Congress...

By CLARENCE J. BROWN
Member of Congress, 7th Ohio District

After two days of debate, the House last Thursday passed and sent to the Senate the Defense Department Appropriation Bill to meet the money needs of the nation's military program in the new fiscal year beginning July 1st next. The measure carried total appropriations of $23,680,706,500, which was $1,206,348,500 less than the budget request, and a little more than $5.5 billion less than military appropriations for the present fiscal year. However, the armed services have an estimated $48 billion left over from previous appropriations, which, when added to the new ones, will make $76,874,000,000 available for Defense Department spending in the new fiscal year. Of the total appropriations carried in the bill, the Army will get $7.6 billion; the Navy, $9.7 billion; the Marine Corps, $612 million, and the Air Force, $10.8 billion.

Most Washington observers believe the danger of direct American involvement in the fighting in Indo-China has somewhat receded in the last two weeks, probably because a great majority of Representatives and Senators have expressed their opposition to sending Americans (especially ground troops) into that conflict. The reluctance of Great Britain, Australia, the Philippines, and other countries greatly interested in the Far East, to become involved in the Indo-China war has also been a deterrent to any positive action by the United States. However, the situation in the Far East is so critical anything can and may happen.

The Geneva Conference started on schedule the first of last week, but under a cloud of uncertainty. Most observers doubt any world problems will be settled, or a permanent peace attained for Korea or Indo-China at Geneva—despite the efforts being made. However, both the French and British are very desirous of bringing an end to the fighting in Indo-China, and may force the United States to agree to some sort of a partition of that war-ridden country.

The formal White House Reception by President and Mrs. Eisenhower for Members of Congress was held Tuesday night of last week, with a great portion of the membership of the Legislative Branch, and their ladies, in attendance. The Congressional Reception had previously been scheduled for the night of March 2nd, but was postponed at that time because of the Puerto Rican shooting affray in the House the day before.

o o o

The United States Chamber of Commerce held its annual meeting in Washington last week. The Ohio State Chamber, which had a large delegation in attendance, gave a reception on Tuesday night of last week for the Ohio Congressional delegation, and later various local Ohio Chambers gave dinner parties in honor of their own Representatives and their wives.

o o o

The winners in the Ohio American Legion annual essay contest were visitors in Washington last week. On Wednesday the winners were entertained by the Ohio Congressional delegation at luncheon in the Executive Dining Room. Jack Reichert, of Mason, Warren County, Ohio, was the only contest winner from the 7th Congressional District in the group visiting Washington.

On last Tuesday—just two months and one day after he was shot down on the floor of the House by Puerto Rican fanatics—Alvin M. Bentley, the most severely wounded of the 5 Members hurt, returned to the House for the first time. Bentley, whose life hung in the balance for many days, was given a rousing reception by his colleagues. While still weak from his wounds, Mr. Bentley responded briefly by expressing his gratitude for the prayers and sympathies of so many Americans during his hospitalization.

The nation's economic picture brightened considerably in April. Many experts are predicting the readjustment from a war-time economy to a peace-time economy is pretty well over, although none expect any business boom to develop in the foreseeable future. Earnings of 150 large American corporations during the first quarter of 1954 averaged 12 per cent lower than for the same period of 1953. On the other hand, housing starts and building construction have developed this Spring at a higher rate than originally predicted.

Last week the Senate, by a vote of 48-40, rejected a "rider" amendment to the Wool Bill to extend present rigid farm price supports at 90 percent of parity for one year. Later, the Wool Bill, which would establish production payments for wool, with the Government paying domestic producers the difference between the average market price and the support level, was approved by the Senate.

The United States Senate now has its second lady member, in the person of Mrs. Eve Bowring, a ranch operator and Republican recently appointed by the Governor of Nebraska to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Nebraska's Senator, Dwight Clawsdale.
